

Author Visit to Netherfield

Dear Parents and Carers,

We have some extremely exciting news...We have an author coming to visit our school!

Jonathan Emmett is a picture book author and will be visiting our school on Tuesday 25 February. He has a packed day full of exciting activities with different classes, as well as a whole school assembly to start the day. Children will have the chance to ask him questions about what being an author is like (we hope our own budding authors will get some fabulous tips!).

The most exciting news is that Jonathan will be available after school on that day to sign copies of his books. This will take place in the library from 3:20 and will be on a first come first served basis. The books will be priced at the special price of £5.00 (usually £6.99). The books have been provided to us by our friends from The Book Case book shop in Lowdham.

Find out more about Jonathan before the visit by visiting his website: www.scribblestreet.co.uk
